Mrs Theodore Roosevelt
(Sr) has always seemed a remarkable woman to us - one to emulate. - We would love to know the intimate life of her youth - the purely personal side - her domestic life - ideals, experiences - attitude towards family life - the daily routine of home life etc. - She has always kept in the background

so we feel we know little of her real self - her personality. - Mrs Coolidge seems also a lovely, lovable, tactful, modest, open, free, inspiring character - about whom we can not hear or see (illustrations) enough -

Mrs. Taft & Mrs Harding were probably admirable and strong characters, but lacked magnetic interest for general public - & beyond being capable, intelligent woman, did not impress or interest, one. - A Subscriber.
